19/08/2021

Present: Smt. Gurmeet Kaur, Proprietor of the Appellant-Applicant with her husband, and Counsel Sh. W. A. Khan.
Sh. M.L. Garg, Counsel for Revenue.

Matter was adjourned from 12/8/2021 for today on the application on behalf of applicant with prayer for waiving of cost of Rs. 5,000/-. Said cost was imposed while passing an order condoning the delay in filing the six appeals.

In the meanwhile, on 16/8/2021 an application came to be filed by the proprietor herself that all these appeals be dismissed as having been withdrawn. However, in para No. 2 of the application it was alleged that the applicant has deposited the disputed amount and copy of challan was enclosed here.

Today, the applicant submits that no such amount has been deposited and no copy of the challan was enclosed with the said application. This application is accordingly dismissed being based on wrong facts.

At the stage, the applicant has presented an application for simple withdrawal of her six appeals filed on 20/3/2019.

Heard.

In view of the submission made by the applicant – appellant in the application, all the appeals filed by the appellant are hereby dismissed as having been withdrawn.

File be consigned to the record room.
Announced in open Court.
